

At JAUSAS we offer our clients legal advice on all aspects of administrative law before the local authorities as well as at the national level. The lawyers in this practice area have extensive experience in advising our clients on any type of administrative procedures, obtaining licences and authorisations in different sectors of administrative law as well assisting in financing, organisation and constitution of public entities, companies and autonomous bodies.

Among the principal services offered by this practice area are the following:

- Advice on business sectors, which are regulated by specific legislation.
- Advice and negotiations with public authorities where necessary, in order to develop businesses.
- Assistance in public procurement matters.
- Advice on planning and execution of privatisation models and financing of the services of the public sector.
- Advice on obtaining licences and authorisations.
- Advice on applying for aid and grants from the national authorities and from the European Union.
- Administrative concessions.
- Legal defence in all administrative disciplinary proceedings.
- Legal defence in all expropriation proceedings.
- Legal actions against the public authorities regarding their contractual or extra-contractual responsibility.
- Defence and protection of fundamental rights.
- Assistance of public authorities regarding the compliance of the legislation regulating their functions, activities and responsibilities.