

The lawyers working in the practice area of real estate law and town planning of JAUSAS assist companies and private individuals in legal issues related to real estate projects, transactions and litigations.

Among the principal services offered by the lawyers of this practice area are the following:

- Advice, planning and execution of operations and investments related to real estate.
- Tax planning of real estate investments.
- Advice regarding drafting and execution of town and country planning, compensation projects, reparation projects and expropriations.
- Advice on obtaining the required permissions and licences regarding real estate operations and construction.
- Advice on infrastructure projects in the sectors of transport, energy and telecommunications.
- Advice regarding mortgages and other forms of financing.
- Negotiation and drafting of contracts related to the sector.
- Advice on constitution of companies in the sectors of real estate and construction.
- Advice on administrative and tax inspections regarding real estate investments or projects.
- Assistance in litigations and administrative procedures.