

The Aviation Law Department of JAUSAS provides general corporate and commercial advice to players of the aviation industry, including legal advice on EU and Spanish regulations, contracts relating to the use and operation of aircraft, regulatory and contractual issues relating to air travel. In this context, we regularly advise our clients on day-to-day matters such as:

- Securing and maintaining governmental and regulatory licenses and permits.
- Landing rights and slot allocation.
- Aircraft purchase and sale agreements, lease agreements and engine lease and maintenance agreements.
- Fuel and spare parts supply and procurement agreements.
- Ground handling agreements.
- Crew agreements, including related labour law aspects.
- On-going monitoring and advice on new legislation.
