

J AUSAS boasts a team of lawyers specialising in the travel, tourism and leisure industries. This sector is closely linked to other areas of practice and intersects with our real estate, aviation and asset finance practice groups, among others.

Our firm has a broad international client base in receipt of the following lines of advice:

- Accommodation contracts between tour operators and hoteliers or apartment owners
- General Terms and Conditions for tour operators, destination service providers
- Personal injury cases involving tourists staying abroad
- Passenger claims and complaints
- Acquisition and sale of business units, travel agencies, hotels
- International representative agreements, GSA'S
- Chartering of all types of means of transport
- Development of golf courses, spas, hotels, resorts
- Fractional ownership projects, timesharing
- Advice on local regulations (eco-tax, safety requirements, squatters, travel agency requirements, environmental fines and sanctions)

The Tourism and Travel Law Team works seamlessly with our Commercial Law, Real Estate Tax and Aviation Law Departments. Our clients in this field include developers, financiers, tour operators, hoteliers, airlines, cruise operators, leisure centres and golf courses.
